Specification of Competency Standards for the Automotive Industry Unit of Competency

Functional Area - Common Competency

Title	Conduct demonstration of technical skills
Code	108814L3
Range	The practitioner should be able to conduct demonstration of technical skills properly in a safe and undisturbed environment, taking into account the different learning ability and progress of learners and be able to respond to the questions raised.
Level	3
Credit	1 (For Reference Only)
Competency	Performance Requirements 1. Knowledge (Technical demonstration skills)
	<ul> <li>Understand the detailed steps to perform each task, and how to split various. technical tasks for demonstration purpose</li> <li>Know the difference in progress of learners in the learning process.</li> <li>Know how to teach learners to ask questions at appropriate stages.</li> <li>Know the ways to respond to learners' questions</li> </ul>
	Performance (Conduct technical demonstrations safely and effectively)
	<ul> <li>Carry out demonstration of technical skills for various work procedures</li> <li>Observe the progress of the learners and supplement with appropriate explanations</li> <li>Ensure the learners can learn in an undisturbed environment</li> <li>Ensure the demonstration be carried out in a safe environment, and allow learners to see the demonstration clearly</li> </ul>
Assessment Criteria	The integrated outcome requirement of this unit of competency is that the practitioner being assessed shall prove that he/she is:
	Capable of conducting technical demonstration properly and safely.
Remark	